William Blair SICAV Dynamic Diversified Allocation Fund

OBJECTIVE

Capital Growth and Income

CHARACTERISTICS

The Fund seeks to capitalize on global opportunities through active management across asset classes, geographies, currencies, and risk themes.

WHY CONSIDER THIS FUND?

- Actively manages macro risks: Historically, over 90% of portfolio return variation has been attributable to top-down (macro) allocation decisions¹
- Seeks to take advantage of global opportunities and risks: Global interconnectedness has increased the relevance and pace at which macro political and economic factors affect investment results
- Seeks to capitalize on fundamental value/price dislocations in global markets and currencies through dynamic risk capital allocations
- Leverages divergent sources of alpha by combining the team's macro-oriented process with several of William Blair's bottom-up oriented strategies

Please be advised that any return estimates or indications of past performance on this document are for information purposes only. Returns for periods of one year or more are annualized. All charges and fees, except any entry, exit and switching charge, have been taken into account in calculating the Fund's performance. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance and no assurance can be made that the profits will be achieved or that substantial losses will not be incurred. The value of shares and any income from them can increase or decrease. An investor may not get back the amount originally invested. Where investment is made in currencies other than the investor's base currency, the value of those investments, and any income from them, will be affected by movements in exchange rates. This effect could be unfavourable as well as favourable. Levels and bases for taxation may change. Further specific risks may arise in relation to specific investments and you should review the risk factors very carefully before investing. Intended risk profile of the Fund may change overtime. The Fund is designed for long-term investors. For the most current month-end performance information, please visit our web site at sicav.williamblair.com.
